

Real Estate Development
أبيار للتطوير العقاري

Abyaar Vice Chairman & Managing Director Wins “CEO Middle East” Award 2008

Recognition bestowed upon boutique property developer’s CEO as entrepreneur

Dubai, United Arab Emirates, 15 October 2008:

Marzooq Al-Rashdan, vice chairman and managing director of luxury property developer Abyaar, walked away with the prestigious award for “CEO of the Year” at this year’s CEO Middle East Awards 2008 in the entrepreneur category.

There were 15 categories of business excellence being recognized this year, and nominations and winners were chosen by ITP Editors and Directors.

This year’s awards ceremony took place at Raffles Hotel in Dubai on Monday October 13th. The evening also featured a key note speech from the founder of easyJet, Sir Stelios Haji-Iannou.

Marzooq Al-Rashdan, vice chairman and managing director of Abyaar, welcomed the award as a testament to Abyaar’s focus on quality and design, “This is a great honor for me but also for Abyaar - it continues to reinforce our path to being recognized internationally as a quality-focused property developer.”