Abyaar Real Estate Development Looks Forward to a Bright Real Estate Future in the region

Kuwait, 25 March 2008:

Abyaar vice chairman Mr. Marzooq Al Rashdan is to speak at the upcoming Arabian Business Conference Kuwait 2008.

Abyaar Real Estate Development, one of the leading property developers in the region, is the main sponsor of the conference which takes place today March 26 at the Marriot courtyard Hotel Kuwait.

Al Rashdan will be talking about the real estate sector in the region and his expectations and speculations on the future of the industry.

Khaled Al Sayer, Corporate Communications Manager at Abyaar Real Estate Development said "Abyaar's achievements in Dubai over the last two years are prime examples of what the real estate industry is capable of and Mr. Al Rashdan will be talking about how the lessons that Abyaar has learnt in Dubai can be brought to Kuwait and the rest of the region".

"Abyaar's rapid growth is due to the stability of the real estate market in the UAE and the strong economic growth of the region as a whole," added Al Sayer. "

We at Abyaar are optimistic about the future of both the market and our company, which is set to increase its investment portfolio and expand into different countries such as Qatar and KSA over the coming years."

The Arabian Business Conference is the first ever conference on investment and business opportunities in Kuwait.

In his keynote address Kuwaiti Finance Minister H.E. Mustafa Al Shimali will outline the government's latest business initiatives and its privatisation programme.

Business leaders and economists, including specialists from around the region, will also speak on the government initiatives.
